

Name: A Client
Course: Legal English: Commercial Lawyers
Level: 4 / Low Intermediate
Arrived: 2 December 2014
Left: 6 December 2014
Attendance: 100%

This course for commercial lawyers was specially designed to meet the participants' professional needs and focused on contract writing, case studies, negotiating and aspects of English and European Community law. Language input and practice activities were carried out in the context of professional legal topics and activities were specially designed to meet the professional needs of practising lawyers and legal experts. A significant proportion of time was spent on expanding and developing participants' legal English vocabulary.

1. Our assessment of your level

The school's level scale matches IELTS. When a student has finished work at a level s/he should achieve this score on an IELTS test.

* Common European Framework of Reference for Languages of the Council of Europe.

You can find more details on our assessment scale at <http://www.londonschool.com/level-scale/>

2. Your opinion of your confidence

 Before you arrived  At the end of your course

Speaking and vocabulary

(Your ability to say what you want to say using the correct words)

Listening comprehension (Your ability to understand what you hear)

Reading comprehension (Your ability to understand what you read)

English in work situations (Your ability to communicate with others at work e.g. making telephone calls, participating in meetings, discussions, giving presentations, etc.)

English in social situations (Your ability to communicate with others in informal situations e.g. chatting with people about things not necessarily related to work)

3. Recommendations for the future

- Work through LondonSchool Online for the next three months.
- Take every opportunity to use English.
- Regularly read an English language book or magazine.
- Check an English language news website regularly.
- Regularly listen to an English language radio station.
- Watch a film with the subtitles in English.
- Review the grammar points and language feedback covered on your course.
- Review the new vocabulary you have covered on your course.
- Consolidate your use of English in meetings.
- Continue to give presentations in English.
- Regularly write correspondence in English.

Thank you for studying with The London School of English.

Peter Thompson
Director of Courses

Bringing language to life